FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 01/16/2001

[redacted] Computer Specialist World Wide Association of Specialty Programs (WWASP), date of birth [redacted] SSN [redacted] work telephone number [redacted] was telephonically contacted at his work. After being made aware of the identity of the interviewing Agent and his willingness to listen to [redacted] complaint about a computer attack on WWASP's website, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

On December 31, 2000 or January 1, 2001, WWASP's website www.wwasp.com was attacked by an unknown individual. The attack resulted in the theft of confidential information from WWASP. The information stolen from WWASP included confidential records with names, addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of WWASP clients. Photographs of WWASP clients, photographs of WWASP children in private schools, computer passwords and WWASP trainer reports were also stolen from WWASP's website. The information that was stolen has been posted on www.wwasp.com and www.attrition.org. The information was posted so it could be accessed without passwords by the public.

WWASP's website was out of service from January 1, 2001 until approximately January 3, 2001. The website's on-line registration system was not operational as of January 10, 2001. [redacted] does not intend to allow on-line registration with credit cards until additional security features are added to the website. [redacted] is working with [redacted] Host Force, Minneapolis, Minnesota, telephone number [redacted] and [redacted] Host Force, telephone number [redacted] regarding security and the attack on WWASP's website. b6 b7C

On January 7, 2001 an additional attack on www.wwasp.com occurred. The attack posted a message "you've been hit again" and uploaded several files intended to damage WWASP's computer system. The computer files were not opened and no damage has occurred to the computer system. [redacted] has stored the uploaded files for future reference. There was no additional theft of files as a result of the January 7, 2001 attack. b6 b7C

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] on February 7, 2001:

[redacted] Host Force, Minneapolis, Minnesota, telephone number [redacted] provided SA [redacted] with an electronic copy of the audit log for World Wide Association of Speciality Programs' (WWASP) website for the dates January 1, 2001 through January 12, 2001. The audit log for December 31, 2000 was not available because the log files were deleted at the end of the month. The audit log included the date, time, and IP address of the individual logging onto WWASP's website. The audit log also included a description of the transaction and WWASP's IP address.

The following are the dates, times and IP addresses that accessed WWASP's website and the files [redacted] (the company registering the IP address is also include):

COMPUTER INTRUSIONS - CRIMINAL MATTERS

Synopsis: To close case.

Details: On December 5, 2002, SA [redacted] contacted [redacted] Computer Specialist, World Wide Association of Speciality Programs (WWASP), office telephone number [redacted] regarding above captioned case. [redacted] advised WWASP has not experienced any difficulties or additional computer intrusions since the initial attacks during the time period 12/31/2000 through 1/7/2001. WWASP has changed Internet Service Providers since the initial attack. [redacted] advised he would contact the FBI in the future if additional attacks occurred or additional information is received regarding the initial attack.

Investigation in case determined computer intrusions attacks originated from IP addresses registered to Brazilian Research Network. The registered user of the IP address where the attacks originated was unable to be obtained due to Brazilian Research Network operating outside of the United States.

WWASP has not suffered a specific dollar loss due to the computer intrusion.

Due to the inability to identify a subject in this case because subject used an IP address registered outside of the United States, it is requested this case be closed and no further investigation be conducted.
